

Aims & Objectives of Al-Furqan School

The UKIM education department aims to provide quality Islamic education to the Muslim youth of Glasgow. To achieve this purpose, an evening school (Al-Furqan Islamic School) was established by UKIM Glasgow in 1982 to facilitate then Muslim community to equip their children with basic knowledge of Quran & Sunnah.

Al-Furqan School is an evening Islamic School that has been serving the Muslim community in Glasgow, since 1982. The school offers classes for students (Boys & Girls) from Nursery to Stage 5 (Age 5 - 14 years).

Keeping in view the sensitivity and authenticity of Islamic Knowledge, we aim to provide Quran teaching in a professional, nurturing, and caring environment. Al-Furqan School aims to educate Muslim youth about the teachings of Islam in such a way that they can thrive in non-Islamic world and lead lives according to Islamic principles. We're dedicated to working collaboratively to implement instructional program, adhering to the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah. The main objectives of Al-Furqan includes following;

- To develop the whole personality of pupils with that a God conscious at the core and Islam as the main focus of their lives.
- Taking guidance from the Qur'an and the Sunnah.
- To encourage the pursuit and gaining of general knowledge and skills.
- To ensure that young people enjoy their study at madrassah and develop a love of learning.
- To acquire a moral attitude to life by the practice of Islam in all affairs.
- To inspire all children to achieve their best
- To make children aware of their abilities and give them the support and strength they need to achieve further
- To work closely with parents to ensure their children attain the highest standards
- Ensure that girls and boys have equal access to all areas of the curriculum
- To appreciate the Quran
- To provide learning in a joyous Islamic atmosphere
- Prepare our pupils to live as Muslims, participating proudly and fully with every aspect of modern life.
